PREFACE

This is a table of cases for all the reports of the state of New York from 1794 to 1912. The citations for each case include duplicate reports, official and unofficial. Affirmances and reversals of the cases are also carefully noted.

To present this great mass of materials in one handy volume, with handsomely printed pages, in admirable type, seemed impossible, but the attempt was made, and the result is here submitted. Tables of this kind are often hard to use. This one will prove, we think, extraordinarily easy. First, because it is in a single volume. Second, because each name stands out in distinctive type, sharply separated from other cases.

A long and heavy black dash separates the citations of the reports of the case from the digest references which follow it. Heavy black figures are the volume numbers of Abbott's Digest, and with these are references to the topics and also to the page or paragraph numbers. Pages are given for the main digest (volumes 1-13), and paragraph numbers are given for the digest supplement (volumes 14-21). The abbreviation "Anno." following the digest references to any case refers to "annotation" in the Lawyers Reports Annotated, wherein that case has been thoroughly reviewed in the light of other authorities, not only in New York, but also in other jurisdictions.

The use of this table as a ready means of finding the desired authorities on any question involved in any New York case is of very great value to every lawyer who desires to investigate the present authority of that case. This table refers him first, to every place in this digest where the case can be found, and where he will also find the other New York decisions on the same question. Next, under the abbreviation "Anno." it tells where annotations in the Lawyers Reports Annotated have reviewed that particular decision in the light of other authorities, whether in New York or elsewhere. In this way the table makes each particular case a key to the store of similar New York decisions found in the digest, and also to the larger range of authorities with which this case has been compared and reviewed in L.R.A. annotations.

Information on various details in respect to the alphabetical order of the cases and the style of names and other kindred matter will be found under the head of "Explanations," immediately preceding the table, on page xix.

EXPLANATIONS.

This is a complete table of cases for all the reports of the state of New York from 1794 to 1912 except that mere memorandum decisions for which no digest paragraphs are found either in the main digest (vols. 1-13) or in the supplement (vols. 14-21), are omitted.

Names as given in the table of cases have been arranged according to a uniform standard, and accordingly vary in some instances from those given in the body of the digest.

Generally the running title in the official volume of the reports is adopted, if it differs from the name at the beginning of the case.

Such titles as "Re Jones," "Re Application of Jones," "Re Petition of Jones," "Re Estate of Jones," "Re Will of Jones," "Re Heirs of Jones," "Re Lessee of Jones," "Re Assignees of Jones," "Re Jones's Estate," etc., are all indexed as "Jones, Re."

Such titles as "Matter of Jones v. Smith," or "Re Jones v. Smith," are indexed as "Jones v. Smith."

Private Corporations and Associations. Corporations are indexed by the full corporate name except in the cases specially indicated below. This is true if the full title can be readily found in the opinion, even though neither the running title nor the title at the beginning of the case is the full title.

No distinction is made between corporations and partnerships whose names consist of the names of two or more individuals connected by "&," the first name only being given; e. g., "Hall & Standish," the name of a partnership, is indexed as "Hall;" "Acker, Merrall & Condit," the name of a corporation, is indexed as "Acker." If the name of the partnership or corporation has the expression "& Co.," "& Sons," "& Brothers," etc., following the names of two or more individuals, the entire name, including the expression "& Co.," etc., is retained, intermediate names, if any, being represented by initials; e. g., "Black, Johnston & Co." is indexed as "Black, J. & Co.;" "Burns & Sons" is indexed as "Burns & Sons."

A corporate name beginning with the given name or initials of an individual is indexed as though the name began with the surname; e. g., "E. Remington & Sons Co." is indexed as "Remington & Sons Co." The same rule is followed with titles beginning with "Dr.," "Mrs.," "Father;" e. g., "Dr. David Kennedy Corp." is indexed as "Kennedy Corp."

In indexing the names of banks, national banks, savings banks, trust companies, insurance companies, and the like, geographical names such as the name of a city, county, state, etc., following the name of the corporation, are omitted if there is another distinctive name; e. g., "Mechanic's Bank of Rochester" is indexed as "Mechanic's Bank;" "Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company of Orleans County" is indexed as "Farmers' Mutual Ins. Co." If there is no other distinctive name than the geographical

Titles beginning with "People" or "People ex rel.," etc., are arranged under one alphabet according to the names of the defendants, the relator's name, however, being retained in each case. Where there are two or more cases in which the defendant's name is the same, "People" precedes "People ex rel.," and in case there are two or more of the latter, there is an alphabetic arrangement according to the names of the relators; e. g., "People v. Jones;" "People ex rel. Browning v. Jones;" "People ex rel. Wheeler v. Jones." The same rule is applied in cases of "Brandt" and "Brandt ex dem.," "Brant" and "Brant ex dem.," "Denn" and "Denn ex dem.," "Doe" and "Doe ex dem.," "Jackson" and "Jackson ex dem.," "Lyon" and "Lyon ex dem.," and "United States," "United States ex rel." and "United States use of."

Where the names of two or more cases are identical they are arranged according to the alphabetical order of the first reports given, the official report, if any, coming first, and if none, then the unofficial reports in alphabetical order.

Affirmances, Reversals, etc. Affirmances, reversals, modifications, dismissals of appeals, rearguments, etc., are given in every instance where it has been possible to trace the same. This is always appended to the case in the lower court, instead of to that of the higher court, as the thing desired to be known is what has been done with the opinion of the lower court. In a few cases the decision of the lower court is omitted from the digest, either because the decision of the higher court is on the same point, or for some other reason; and in those cases the table shows what the higher court does with the opinion below.

Topical References. Every digest reference gives the topic in which the case is to be found. For the main digest (Vols. 1-13) the reference is to the page of the digest; for the supplement (Vols. 14-21) the reference is to the particular paragraphs of the topic. The volume of the digest is indicated by a heavy black number. A long and heavy black dash separates the citations of each case from the topical references.

Annotations. The abbreviation "Anno." in the references to a case indicates that the question decided in that case is the subject of annotation.

Heavy faced figures refer to digest volumes. References are to pages in vols. 1—13, but to paragraphs in vols. 14—21. See also the explanations preceding this table.

one, such name is added to or is inserted before the expression "Bank," "National Bank," "Savings Bank," etc.; e. g., "Bank of Auburn," "Brooklyn Bank," "Broome County Bank." In all these cases a cross reference is also given from one to the other, so that one will either find the name itself or a cross reference thereto, whether he looks for Bank of — or for a title beginning with the geographical name.

Where the name of a college, railroad company, bank, etc., is preceded by words indicating officers representing the entire corporation, such as President, Trustees, Rector, etc., the corporation is indexed under the corporate name, omitting the title of the officers; e. g., "President and Trustees of Delaware & Hudson Company" is indexed as "Delaware & H. Co."

In indexing churches the name of the individual church, if in the title, or if it can be readily found from the statement or opinion, is given, followed by the term "Church" or "Church of;" e. g., "All Saints Church" is so indexed, not "Church of All Saints."

Names of orders, societies, etc., are indexed by the name of the order, society, etc., omitting such general names of the lodge, conclave, tent, etc., as Supreme, Grand, United States Grand, State Supreme, etc.; e. g., "Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias," is indexed as "Knights of Pythias," "Supreme Conclave American Legation of Honor" is indexed as "American Legation of Honor;" "Supreme Council Order of Chosen Friends" is indexed as "Order of Chosen Friends." If the lodge, conclave, tent, etc., however, has a distinctive name, that name followed by the name or initials of the order or society is given; e. g., "Yonnondio Lodge F. A. M.," instead of "Free and Accepted Masons."

Public Corporations, Officers, and Boards. All cities, towns, and villages are indexed by the name of such city, town, or village, with nothing to indicate that it is such; e. g., "City of New York" is indexed as "New York;" "Village of Albion" as "Albion;" "Town of Colton" as "Colton." A county, however, has the word "County" following its name; e. g., "Monroe County." This is true although the name given in the report is County of Monroe instead of Monroe County.

Where the name of a city, county, town, or other public corporation is preceded by words indicating officers representing the entire corporation, such as "President," "Mayor," "Trustees," "Freeholders," "Governors," "Council," "Board of Supervisors," etc., the name of the corporation alone is given, without giving the names of the officers or their office; e. g., "Mayor of New York" is indexed as "New York;" "Board of Supervisors of Niagara County" is indexed as "Niagara County;" "Trustees of Town of Brookfield" is indexed as "Brookfield," etc.

Where the name of a public corporation is preceded by the name of a body which does not represent the entire corporation, but only a part thereof, the name is indexed under the name of the office or officers; e. g., "Assessors of Niagara County" is indexed as "Assessors;" "Board of Education of Rochester" is indexed as "Board of Education," etc.

All states except New York are indexed by the name of the state. Thus "Commonwealth of Massachusetts" is indexed as "Massachusetts;" "State of Ohio" as "Ohio," etc. "State of New York," however, is indexed as "State," and "People of New York" as "People."

Such titles as "New York, Re," are followed, if possible, by a parenthesis with the name of the street, park, etc., to be affected by the proceeding, so as to avoid long lists of titles undistinguishable except by the place where they are reported; e. g., "New York (West 15th St.) Re," instead of "New York, Re."

Matters as to schools, school districts, etc., are classified under the title "Board of Education," if used. If not, then under the title "School Board" or "School District."

In some instances the name as given in the title is the name of the body, and in other places the name of one or more of the members of such body; e. g., "Board of Water Supply" is given in some instances, and in others "Bensel et al.," Bensel being one of the members of such board. In cases of this kind the title used in the reports is given, but cross references are given, so far as possible.

Cross References. Much diversity is found in the manner of citing the same name in numerous instances. An attempt has been made to reach uniformity by means of copious cross references; e. g., some cases will be cited as "Board of Commissioners of Excise," some as "Commissioners of Excise," and some as "Excise Commissioners." In indexing, these are all gathered together in one place, and cross references made from all the other places.

In cases where titles differ in different reports, a cross reference from one to the other is given, unless the difference is very slight and one title would immediately follow the other in an alphabetical arrangement so that no mistake could be made; e. g., "Edlefson v. Duryee" is given in one report, and "Edleson v. Duryee" is given in another. As one title would follow immediately after the other, the official title alone is given, as anyone looking for it under the other title must find it under that given. "Grace v. Forbes" and "Grace v. Fobes" is a similar instance. But in the case of "Smith v. Thresher" and "Smith v. Fresher," a cross reference is given, as numerous other cases intervene. Cross references are also given where the name at the beginning of the case differs from the running title.

Alphabetical Arrangement. The entire name of a party, whether consisting of one word or of two or more words, is to be considered in determining its place in alphabetical arrangement; e. g., "Glen," "Glen Cove Mfg. Co.," "Glenn," "Glen Salt Co.," and "Glens Falls Paper Co.," are indexed in the order named.

Names in which the character "&" occurs follow immediately after names consisting of the part preceding such character; e. g., "Glen & Co." is indexed after the name "Glen;" "C. & C. Co." after the initial "C" or the first thing under the letter "C."

The combinations "M'," "Mc," and "Mac" are indexed as though all were spelled "Mac."

All titles consisting of "Matter of Jones," etc., are indexed as "Jones, Re," and stand before those in which the defendant's name is given; e. g., "Jones, Re," "Jones v. Brown," etc.

Titles beginning with "People" or "People ex rel.," etc., are arranged under one alphabet according to the names of the defendants, the relator's name, however, being retained in each case. Where there are two or more cases in which the defendant's name is the same, "People" precedes "People ex rel.," and in case there are two or more of the latter, there is an alphabetic arrangement according to the names of the relators; e. g., "People v. Jones;" "People ex rel. Browning v. Jones;" "People ex rel. Wheeler v. Jones." The same rule is applied in cases of "Brandt" and "Brandt ex dem.," "Brant" and "Brant ex dem.," "Denn" and "Denn ex dem.," "Doe" and "Doe ex dem.," "Jackson" and "Jackson ex dem.," "Lyon" and "Lyon ex dem.," and "United States," "United States ex rel." and "United States use of."

Where the names of two or more cases are identical they are arranged according to the alphabetical order of the first reports given, the official report, if any, coming first, and if none, then the unofficial reports in alphabetical order.

Affirmances, Reversals, etc. Affirmances, reversals, modifications, dismissals of appeals, rearguments, etc., are given in every instance where it has been possible to trace the same. This is always appended to the case in the lower court, instead of to that of the higher court, as the thing desired to be known is what has been done with the opinion of the lower court. In a few cases the decision of the lower court is omitted from the digest, either because the decision of the higher court is on the same point, or for some other reason; and in those cases the table shows what the higher court does with the opinion below.

Topical References. Every digest reference gives the topic in which the case is to be found. For the main digest (Vols. 1-13) the reference is to the page of the digest; for the supplement (Vols. 14-21) the reference is to the particular paragraphs of the topic. The volume of the digest is indicated by a heavy black number. A long and heavy black dash separates the citations of each case from the topical references.

Annotations. The abbreviation "Anno." in the references to a case indicates that the question decided in that case is the subject of annotation.
